V.L. Schwenk Scholarship

V. L. Schwenk served as the Superintendent of the Gilbert Community Schools from 1943 - 1980. He established Gilbert's reputation for quality education, and embodied the principles of fairness, dedication, and scholarship. In 1969, the community honored his years of service by the establishment of a scholarship named for him.

The V. L. Schwenk scholarship is awarded to a graduating senior who possesses strong leadership attributes. It is the only scholarship awarded during graduation ceremonies.
